Board Action Dec. 18, 2019

Attending: John Avent, Fred Deaton, Bill Miller, Dustin Cole, Alex Fitzgerald, Steve Stewart, Gordon Saks, Maree Barney-Sutley, Katina Mickens, Donna Hecker, Chuck Dickinson, Mary Saks, Chris Richards, Hank Hancock and Paula Rarden.

- Steve Stewart had guest Hank Hancock report on "Faith & Freedom" effort that has occurred on July 3rd for the past two years in Frankfort. He explained that they are seeking our club's participation in taking over this endeavor. A few Rotarians are already involved in this project.

- Board approved having a task force to explore the Faith & Freedom project with Dustin Cole as its chairperson to head the committee. Dustin Cole made the motion, second by Alex Fitzgerald.

- Approved the minutes of the November 20, 2019 board meeting with amendment to the word

Our club was presented with a quite informative program today on cardiac health by Andrew Kent, pictured here with program chair Sally Lanham.

'is' to 'will' in bullet point 9. Alex Fitzgerald made the motion, second by Steve Stewart.

- Approved leave-of-absence for Steve Dooley from 1/1/20 to 4/1/20. Donna Hecker made the motion, second by Alex Fitzgerald.

- Approved new members Andrew Kent and Linda Thompson contingent upon no negative responsive after publication in the newsletter. Maree Barney-Sutley made the motion, second by Chuck Dickinson.

- Membership Committee Director Maree Barney-Sutley reported that the current active membership is 83; the addition of two proposed members will make 85. She also reported that the new club trifold is at the publishers and will be ready soon to be handed out to prospective members at meetings and other events.

- Community Service Director Katina Mickens reported that all of the names have been taken for the Angel Tree that our club was doing.

- International Service Director Bill Miller reported that he has filled all of the dates for February speakers with the exception of Feb. 26 being the club speech contest week. Bill is continuing to find the speaker for the club Rotary International Dinner scheduled April 23, 2020.

- Youth Service report was given by Alex Fitzgerald. He is working on getting the information out to the schools after the first of the year for the students wanting to participate in this year's speech contest.

- Board approved having Alex Fitzgerald look into having the club host this year's Rotary sectional speech contest. Steve Stewart made the motion, second by Alex Fitzgerald.

- Board approved the disbursement of $318 to purchase a new mic and sound system for the club. Steve Stewart made the motion, second by Alex Fitzgerald.

- Board approved having Gordon Saks request a $3,000 grant to help build two dug-outs at East Frankfort Park with help from Franklin County Technical School, and the Frankfort Parks and Recreation for the 2021 budget year. Gordon Saks made the motion, second by Donna Hecker.

- Listened to financial report for November 2019 as presented by John Avent.

- Scheduled the next board meeting for 1/15/20.

Attention Rotarians!

The end of the tax year is quickly approaching, and you still have an opportunity to give to the Annual Fund at the Rotary Foundation. Not only do you help projects and people all over the world through the Rotary Foundation, we also benefit locally with our district grants that fund projects such as the Palmore Pavilion on the River Trail and our Rotary Youth Fund scholarships. Please consider giving by the end of the year and work towards earning your Paul Harris Fellow. If you have questions, please call Kristin Cantrell at (814) 935-9750 to get details about your current status and how to give. The Rotary Foundation has a stellar reputation for fiscal responsibility, so you know your money is safe and used wisely for the benefit of mankind. Happy Holidays!
