Rotary

Happy Birthday!

Happy birthday to fellow Rotarians Chuck Dickinson, George Gill, Andrew Kent, Bill Scott and Paul Yancey, who celebrate their birthday in June.

“A Minute With...”

Look for a new special online feature called, “A Minute With...” As part of the board’s efforts to keep us connected, member Dustin Cole will be using our Zoom conferencing app to help us know our fellow members better, and perhaps preserve some of our history. Dustin will produce an ongoing series of 15- to 30-minute video conversations with members that you can view online with just a click. Dustin predicts we will be surprised to learn things we never knew about many of the Rotary colleagues we’ve known for years, and will help us get better acquainted with our newer members. Dustin will produce the conversations and we will email members a link.

Franklin County Emergency Food Pantry

Each year in May for more than a decade, The Frankfort Rotary has conducted a food drive to support our local Franklin County Emergency Food Pantry. The Covid-19 pandemic has created an unprecedented crisis in food insecurity for families and our area’s children as parents lose their livelihoods and cannot adequately and reliably provide a healthy diet for their children.

This year for the first time, the Youth Fund is taking an active role. While our primary purpose is to provide scholarships to area students to attend college or technical school, our larger commitment is to support our area youth. In that respect, even as we have had to cancel our most important scholarship fundraiser, the Youth Fund has pledged to once again provide $17,000 in scholarships to area youth this year.

As of this week, we’ve missed 12 in-person meetings. That’s over $150 members have saved by not purchasing lunches — enough to feed two families of six for an entire week!

We urge our fellow Rotarians and everyone in our community to donate as much as they can to help assure that our Franklin County youth do not go hungry. Please visit www.frankfortrotariayouthfund.org/food-drive for a donation link or mail your check to Emergency Community Food Pantry, PO Box 48, Frankfort, KY 40602.

Our club had its first “regular” meeting in months, with an online Zoom meeting featuring Crystal Elam (above) as speaker. Crystal is with Junior Achievement and spoke about the program. Below is a screen shot of the meeting.
