Next week's meeting...

Kerry Lowary and Sam Marcus with the Franklin County Humane Society will speak at next week's meeting. Kerry was hired by FCHS as a Veterinary Assistant in December 2013 and has been with them since, becoming the Shelter Manager in December 2017. Under Kerry's management, live outcomes have improved from 87% to 95%. Sam joined the FCHS Board of Directors in October 2011, became President in December of that year, and continues to serve in that capacity.

Sam and Kerry will be discussing the new shelter plans and any related topics about the Franklin County Humane Society. They are members of the New Shelter Design and Capital Campaign Committees. Design consultants K Norman Berry and Design Learned were selected from nine submissions to an RFP for schematic design due to a combination of architectural skill, mechanical and electrical engineering, and related experience. The design team met monthly throughout 2017, working and reworking design and programming. A new shelter site was selected and endorsed in July 2019 on city-owned property, saving an estimated $250K in infrastructure costs. In February 2020, the City of Frankfort committed $1,000,000 to the project; the Franklin County Fiscal Court committed $800,000 in March. The Capital Campaign has a goal of raising $1,600,000 by June 30, 2021. It has raised approximately $375,000 to date since July 1.

A note from Pres. Donna

Big thanks to President-elect Diane Dehoney for hosting next week's meeting. And remember that you can now use viewing the Zoom recordings of our weekly meetings as a make-up. Simply let Paula and me know when you've done so and thank you for your commitment!

Fellow Rotarians, with Veterans Day fast approaching, I would love for our club to do something special to honor the veterans among us. Please share your ideas and suggestions for how we might best do that. Email me at donnahecker@aol.com or rotaryfrankfortky@gmail.com, or give me a call at (502) 330-5835.

In honor of Veterans Day, we'd like to publicly recognize our many Rotarians who've served their country. Please let us know if you or someone you know in Rotary is a veteran so we can compile an accurate list. Thank you!

Addition to Board Minutes

Acknowledge with regrets resignation of fellow Rotarian Sara Johnson.

Dues Reminder

Just a reminder that if you haven't already paid the 7/1/20 to 12/31/20 Rotary club dues please do so if possible. Thanks so much.
