Attendance Pins Awarded

Congratulations to the following Rotarians who received their Perfect Attendance pins for December: Lee Troutwine, 34 years; and Dudley Ellis, nine years.

Salvation Army Results

Here is the outcome of the club bell ringing:
Kroger East grocery door ..... $1,493.96
Kroger East pharmacy door ..... $ 502.86
Kroger West grocery door..... $ 335.76
Kroger West pharmacy door..... $ 548.31

A holiday message from President Donna

“As I reach the six-month mark of my term at this most special time, please know what an honor it has been to serve as your president! It’s been such a difficult year, yet all of you have carried on with so much grace and dignity and determination to be the best Rotarians possible. You’ve opened your hearts and minds to a wide diversity of speakers and ideas, you’ve put shoes on the littlest feet, and you’ve provided for some of the neediest and most vulnerable among us.

Hecker

“I know how difficult it’s been to give up meeting in person; to learn to navigate the craziness of zoom meetings; to tolerate my clumsy grasp of technology. But you’ve inspired me to keep on going and make the best of it and keep my sense of humor; while reminding us all of how special it was to come together in what we’ve started calling the ‘before times.’

“Most of us will likely be spending this week physically apart from those we love the most. Please keep your fellow Rotarians in your thoughts and be sure to drop off a bag of goodies next Monday or Tuesday for Wednesday’s exchange. Details on how to do that are included in Dustin’s flyer, which you may receive separately.

“And remember, there’s no regular meeting next week but we’ll open a Zoom call at 11:30 for anyone who’d like to drop in and visit for a few.

“Finally, let’s give 2020 a big send-off and remember how we found gifts even among the losses. Have a wonderful Christmas and Happy New Year!”
