Next Week's Meeting...

Our program next week comes to us courtesy of Rotarian Carol Smith and new member Sherry Sebastian. Sherry, who represents Franklin County's First District on the Fiscal Court, will discuss her Talking Points initiative. Be prepared to actively engage in the conversation as this is guaranteed to be a lively discussion!

Last week's program...

We were honored to host the Sectional 6 portion of the District 6710 speech contest during our March 31 meeting. Many thanks are due to fellow Rotarians Alex Fitzgerald, Kristin Cantrell, Sherry Sebastian, Carol Smith, Calen Studler, and Bill Scott for their assistance in planning and executing the contest. Teamwork definitely made the dream work, and your service is greatly appreciated!

Radio Fundraiser update

"We are wrapping up the Rotary Radio Month. While we have not made the goal amount, we will have raised significant monies to fund important community projects. Always better to set your goals high and not attain them, than to set your goals too low and reach them. As of today, we have $3,075 pledged. We now need to get the remaining pledges into Paula in the next couple of days. Also, there are still many businesses on the list with pending status, so maybe in the next couple of days we can close these sales and bring the amount donated to $4,000. Please e-mail

Gary Stratton gary.stratton@kysu.edu with the 10-second ad line and name of the business, and then send the money to Paula. We have done okay in a Covid year. Let us start planning for $10,000 in 2022. Thank you!"

Speech contest results

Further proof that there's hope for the future was on abundant display in yesterday's speech contest! Three promising young leaders competed for prize money and the opportunity to advance to the next round of the District 6710 contest. Anderson Diaz, Sarah Burbank and Andrew Witak all presented excellent speeches and the final scores were very close. Sarah won first place ($400) and will advance; Andrew was second ($200) and Anderson placed third ($100.) We commend their efforts and look forward to their future successes!
