her position as an eighth-grade science teacher at Scott County Middle School.

"Being raised in upstate New York yet spending my college years at Morehead State University in eastern Kentucky, has developed my unique outlook on life. After four years in training, I was ordained as a deacon in the Diocese of Lexington on June 6, 2011. My personal ministry involves helping people develop a more spiritual reverence for God's creation and creatures. Within our Episcopal diocese, I have a passion for Reading Camp and St. Agnes House. I am excited to be joining the folks at Ascension as we continue our walk together on the path of life." Deacon Saager will present a program on the free Reading Camp hosted by the Church of the Ascension every summer.

Frankfort Rotary is inviting you to a scheduled Zoom meeting.

A note from Donna-

It was wonderful to see so many Rotarians in the flesh last week! And to anyone who tried to log into the Zoom meeting – problems with the hotel wi-fi prevented me from opening it. We'll be better prepared next week with a back-up plan but remember that you can also view all our programs at 6 p.m. Wednesdays on Cable 10.

Please see the link to the Frankfort Juneteenth Celebration at the Grand Theater from Ed Powe. All Rotarians are invited; admission is free and there will be plenty of distancing space in the theater.

The Four-Way Test

Rotary's Four-Way Test is a non-partisan and nonsectarian ethical guide for Rotarians to use for their personal and professional relationships. The test has been translated into more than 100 languages, and Rotarians recite it at club meetings.

Of the things we think, say or do...

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
