Next Week's Meeting...

Elle Travis serves as the Executive Director of Yes Arts (formerly Hands Healing HeArts). Elle was born and raised in Frankfort attending Collins Lane Elementary, Bondurant Middle, and Western Hills. In 2002, she left Kentucky to attend Ringling College of Art and Design in Sarasota, FL where she obtained her bachelor's degree of Fine Art. Following college in 2008, she returned home to Frankfort and has worked a variety of jobs in our community, including Children's Director at First Christian Church (2012-present), Store Manager of Completely Kentucky (2014-present) and now, Executive Director of Yes Arts.

Travis

Yes Arts is a 501c3 organization with a mission of "mobilizing the power of community and the arts to disrupt the cycle of addiction". Yes Arts formed in 2016 after local artist Doris Thurber lost her daughter Maya to a drug overdose in 2015. Using her art to heal, she wanted to help other families in our community. Today, Yes Arts still supports her work through our mission by aligning programs in Recovery (healing techniques through the arts to sustain recovery and help those touched by addiction), Youth (prevention programs to enhance strong mentorships and other supportive protective factors), and Community (education to reduce the stigma of addiction and recovery).
