About the Foundation

The Foundation for Appalachian Advancement (FAA) strives to promote educational opportunities, economic development, and the advancement of our culture, history and heritage through the arts. It is a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization that takes a two-tiered approach to enhancing our Appalachian region.

First, the FAA strives to provide educational opportunities and economic diversification in areas where it is needed the most. Through the development of programs to provide funding for vocational/educational opportunities and programs designed to encourage small business development the FAA aids in economic diversification.

The second tier focuses exclusively on Appalachian artists. The FAA will focus on building a community of artists to promote their work and achievements. The Appalachia region is home to a multitude of painters, sculptors, writers, poets, musicians, actors, filmmakers, and artists from many genres. The Foundation believes that a vibrant artistic community is a vital part of introducing those outside of this extraordinary region to the experience and arts, heritage, history, and natural beauty that only the Appalachian region offers.

If you are a local artist in the Appalachia region and would like to promote your work please contact us. Learn more at www.supportappalachia.org.

Honolulu to host 2027 Rotary International Convention

from www.rotary.org

HONOLULU (Feb. 18, 2021) — Almost one year after canceling its international convention in Honolulu due to the COVID-19 coronavirus pandemic, Rotary announced it will hold its annual gathering in Honolulu for the membership service organization's 118th convention on June 5-9, 2027.

Held in a different city around the world each year, Rotary conventions bring members from all continents and cultures together to learn from each other and various experts, and to share ideas for delivering long-term solutions to the world's most persistent humanitarian issues. Approximately 20,000 Rotary members from 170 countries were expected to attend the event in Honolulu in 2020, which was estimated to bring $35-40 million into the local economy.

"After canceling our convention in 2020 due to COVID-19, we are grateful to the citizens of Honolulu for welcoming us again in 2027," said past RI President Holger Knaack. "As a global organization that values bringing people together, we look forward to sharing and celebrating our friendships, cultures and service in the spirit of Aloha."

"Beyond the incredible economic impact this convention will have, the people of Hawai'i will be inspired by the humanitarian causes of Rotary International, to include: promoting peace, fighting disease, providing clean water, saving mothers and children, supporting education, growing local economies and protecting the environment," said John De Fries, President and CEO, Hawaii Tourism Authority. "As a global community, Rotary members embody the values we cherish here, in Hawai'i."

Organized by Rotary International in conjunction with the Honolulu Host Organizing Committee of local Rotary members, the convention will provide attendees with ample opportunities to experience Oahu's many attractions.

The Rotary Club of Honolulu, chartered in 1915, is Rotary's first club in Honolulu. Today, there are more than 1,470 Rotary members who belong to over 45 clubs across Hawai'i taking action on important local issues including drowning prevention, creating green space in Waikiki and helping homeless people receive medical care.
