Next Week's meeting

Laura J. Hagg Frankfort City Manager

Laura J. Hagg brings 30 years of experience in public, private, and non-profit sectors in the United States and internationally in the fields of good governance, local economic development, communications, civil society and resiliency. Laura served in senior leadership and director roles in Ukraine, Jordan and Tunisia, leading programs that worked with local governments and civil society in the areas of strategic planning, effective governance, solid waste management and local economic development. She previously was the Regional Director for the Middle East and Africa programs at the International City/County Management Association. Earlier in her career, she consulted with local and state governments and universities on emergency preparedness and business continuity planning. She began her career working in the City Manager's office for the City of Westminster, Colorado. Below are some topics that Laura will be talk about as our speaker:

- 1) Mission of the International City/County management Association and your role?
- 2) From all of your unique international assignments, were there some Best Practices or experiences that are helpful in your current position as city manager?
- 3) Why is it important for Frankfortian's to learn more about international issues and how they impact us locally?
