Robinson

Just Grind Performance LLC is a tool to activate performance through individual sports training, event planning and philanthropy using innovative and creative methods for individual or group success. Robinson has been in the sports training business for over five years, event planning on and off for 20 years, and philanthropist all his life.

Bridging the Gap was created to build upon a relationship that has been underutilized between Kentucky State University and the city of Frankfort. Our goal is to continuously reach out and provide events aimed towards our mission of unification. All are encouraged to Get Actively Participating on a regular basis

Thanks once again to the Troutwines for hosting our annual picnic, now officially called the Lee Troutwine Annual Rotary Picnic. It was a delightful day for a gathering, and we had a great turnout!

Today our club received a “100 Years of Service” Anniversary Joint Proclamation from Mayor Layne Wilkinson and County Judge-executive Huston Wells, shown here flanked by Tish Shade and President Dustin. Thank you both for being with us today!
