Next Week's Meeting...

Fellow Rotarian Kristie Powe is a proud graduate of her hometown HBCU Kentucky State University. She is a Constituent Services Analyst for the LRC and the current Vice President of Focus on Race Relations (FORR). The goal of this group, which consists of a diverse group of community members, is to take the taboo out of discussing race and race-related issues.

Powe

In addition to being a member of FORR, Kristie belongs to Black Female Artists of Frankfort, NAACP, Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Chairperson of the Frankfort Human Rights Commission, Member of Frankfort Rotary Club, Member of Women in Networking, and Frankfort Comprehensive Plan Advisory Committee. She looks forward to continuing to use her voice and her art to encourage open and honest conversations about race and race related issues in Frankfort and Franklin County.

Kristie understood what it meant to be the “token black” from a very young age. From as early as she can remember, she was one of only a small handful of black people in her neighborhoods, schools, and peer groups. Upon graduation from Franklin County High School, she received a full academic scholarship to Fisk University, which became her first introduction to an all-black environment. The culture shock of this would later fuel her desire to help other young women express their experiences of growing up black in an all-white environment.

Have an Attitude of Gratitude

By District Governor Nancy J. Stearman

“Happy Holidays!

There are many different things you could be doing with your time this holiday season. You don't have to be serving others, but you do. And when you choose to serve, your kindness and faithfulness to helping those in need will shine bright.

DG Stearman

“Serving is the selfless act of giving others what they cannot provide for themselves. The act has the potential to transform, not only others, but also the person who is serving.

“Rotarians serve in a myriad of different ways. And each member brings a uniqueness to their efforts. Our service during the holiday season is enhanced when you feel free to live out the fresh and original way you were designed to be.

“Rotary's diversity is a strength that can unite, rather than a weakness that could divide. The diversity of the gifts you bring also reflects the diversity of Rotary's international membership... members serving in different ways, according to their custom, during this sacred season.

“Be grateful for the opportunities to make a difference in the world and for the efforts of others.

“Embrace the attitude of gratitude this holiday season and beyond!”

Nancy J. Stearman

District Governor 2022-23
