Next Week's Meeting...

Rebecca Saager and her husband Donald have lived on a small farm outside of Stamping Ground, Kentucky, for 30 years. They have two sons and two granddaughters. In 2012, Rebecca retired from her position as an eighth-grade science teacher at Scott County Middle School.

Saager

“Being raised in upstate New York, yet spending my college years at Morehead State University in eastern Kentucky, has developed my unique outlook on life,” she says. “After four years in training, I was ordained as a deacon in the Diocese of Lexington on June 6, 2011. My personal ministry involves helping people develop a more spiritual reverence for God’s creation and creatures. Within our Episcopal diocese, I have a passion for Reading Camp and St. Agnes House. I am excited to be joining the folks at Ascension as we continue our walk together on the path of life.”

Deacon Saager will present a program on the free Reading Camp hosted by the Church of the Ascension every summer. The mission of the Reading Camp is to promote personal and academic growth and success of struggling and at-risk students through summertime educational opportunities. The camp is from July 15 to July 19.
