Next Week's Meeting...

Julia Gash is part of the Quality Department at Cummins Drive Train and Braking Systems in Frankfort. She has been a resident of Frankfort for four years and graduated from Anderson County High School in 2007.

Gash

Since joining Cummins a year ago, she has had the honor of being selected as the first Community Involvement Team Lead at our Frankfort location. This role aligns deeply with her passion for community service. Through our Every Employee, Every Community (EEEC) initiative, they are committed to redefining industry involvement in the communities we serve.

Julie is proud of the strides they've made in the first year and is eager to inspire other local industries to join us in giving back.
