Next Week's Meeting...

John Hibbard, 51, is originally from Richmond, KY but has called Frankfort home since 2009. John graduated from University of Kentucky in 1998 and began his career in financial services at Wells Fargo; he then went to work for MetLife for five years, JP Morgan for one year, and it's been Edward Jones for the last 19 years. John served on the Chamber of Commerce board for five years, was the founder of the Capital Business Referral Group, and was the chair of Relay for Life for four years. He served on the board of Lady Vets Connect, and was part of the Franklin County Humane Society for 14 years, two as its president. He is the vice chair of the Franklin County Republican Party, and is currently running for fifth district magistrate in Franklin County.

John is the son of Jack and Paula Hibbard, a coal miner and a schoolteacher. He is married to his wife Lisa of five years and have three dogs: Juno, Venus, and Big Chewy.

Rotary's Four-Way Test

The Four-Way Test is a nonpartisan and nonsectarian ethical guide for Rotarians to use for their personal and professional relationships. The test has been translated into more than 100 languages, and Rotarians recite it at club meetings.

Of the things we think, say or do...

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
